HISTORY

Nelson Guerra got saved in the 70's, during the cold war when Central America was a war zone. Soon after he got saved, he embraced the mission of sharing his faith with everyone he knew. These missionary efforts developed into churches with a great commission zeal; resulting in a church planting movement named Great Commission Latin America (GCLA). Today GCLA has churches in 10 countries, and has plans to expand to the remaining 16 countries in Latin America.

A deep love for God and His mission is what compels GCLA churches to bring God's kingdom to people of all walks of life.

MISSION

To plant, develop and multiply churches in the Latin American world

VISION

A growing church in every major city of Latin America

GREAT COMISSION LATIN AMERICA

Missions or Partnerships?

Regularly the news portrays Latin countries that are on the brink of economic, political, social, cultural, and moral collapse. Now more than ever, Latin American societies need the message of hope and transformation.

GCLA builds partnerships with US churches and ministries to strengthen its local churches, and support these churches' efforts to transform its communities with the Gospel.

Missionaries who visit GCLA churches' project sites, besides developing strong ties to the local leaders, serve in holistic community development projects aimed to restore the quality of life of individuals and their families. Our mission efforts are primarily directed to serve single mothers, the elderly, children and youth at risk.

Why should I go? what would I do?

If you partner with GCLA, your church members will have the opportunity to work shoulder to shoulder with local committed believers, and to apply their spiritual gifts and skills to lighten the emotional, physical and spiritual burden of people in underprivileged communities.

Are you an accountant? a watercolor painter? a cook? a mechanic? a computer specialist? a nurse? a pastor? Everyone will be put to work, equip, train, serve, in your area of knowledge for greater results and experience.

GCLA will arrange your airline tickets, schedule, insurance, ground transportation, translation, housing, even your safe drinking water. Our staff and volunteers will help you focus on showing the love of Christ to those you serve.

Jesus said "let your good deeds shine out for all to see, so that everyone will praise your heavenly Father" (Mat 5:16); for us, partnerships in mission bring glory to God.
